

Can You Wish Anything Better?

Are you thinking of making a friend a Christmas present? If you are, then let us make a suggestion. It would be impossible to find a more suitable gift than engraved cards. Won't you agree with us? Think it over and consider the following attractive propositions:

To encourage early ordering our engraver has consented to make us a discount of 20 per cent. on all orders for engraved cards from this date until December 10. We are going to give our holiday customers the benefit of this discount instead of taking it ourselves. Heretofore our prices have ranged from $1.75 to $3.00 according to the styles of engraving, and one hundred cards, but from now until the tenth of December we are going to discount these prices, and give the buyers the benefit. After this date the prices will go back to what they were previous to this offer.

Come to the office and select from the thirty distinct styles your choice and let us give you a discount price. Remember this offer is extended to December 10, and all orders received after that date will not be subject to the discount.

STOCK, CROP AND FARM NOTES.

—J. S. Roberts sold to Abnee & Musson 12,000 pounds of tobacco at 13 cents straight.

—In Clark county, A. Scoobe sold his farm on the Paris pike at $185 per acre to R. P. Scoobe.

—Mr. and Mrs. Tip Caywood, residing on the Prescott farm near North Middletown, sold 47 turkeys that brought the sum of $100. Mrs. Eva Gilkey received the handsome sum of $131 for her flock of turkeys.

—T. W. Current rented to Dudley Fryman and son for $3,000, a farm of 500 acres on Rattles Mills and Millersburg pike. The land will be cultivated as follows: 100 acres in wheat; 65 acres in corn; 15 acres in tobacco; balance in grass.

—Zach T. Piper rented to Ed and Erastus Swart his 190 acre farm near Austerlitz for $1,000, payable $500 in cash $500 at expiration of lease. Messrs. Swart were offered a premium of $250 on their contract but declined to accept.

—Auctioneer Geo. D. Speaks sold Tuesday the Mrs. Lou Combs farm of 160 acres, on the Hawkins and Cummins pike, to W. H. Whaley for $76 per acre. Mr. Whaley bought same day the farm of John Simpson, containing 37 1-2 acres, which adjoins this land at private price. This now gives Mr. Whaley a farm of near 600 acres as before buying he already owned good farm adjoining these lands.

—The hog crop is admittedly small. Government estimates place the shortage around 11 per cent for the country and 15 to 17 per cent in the main hog producing states. Market experts generally consider that the corn belt will have but 25 per cent less hogs to sell this year than last, says Breeders' Gazette. Receipts so far this year have been running far behind, with a shortage so far at the ex-principal western markets of 1,875,000 head, or 12 1-2 per cent compared with the same months last year. With the high prices that prevailed for live hogs, consumption has been curtailed in a measure, but still there is only a very meagre supply of the hog product in store.

Bourbon's Oldest Citizen Dead.

In the death of John W. Skillman, which occurred at an early hour Tuesday morning at his home on Cane Ridge, Bourbon county lost her oldest citizen. Mr. Skillman being in his ninety-ninth year having been born in Bedford county, Virginia on August 10, 1811.

Mr. Skillman probably had the distinction of being the oldest living member of the Christian Church at the time of his death, he having united with the church in 1836 under the preaching of Elder John T. Johnson. He held his membership in the church at Cane Ridge, which was erected out of logs more than one hundred years ago and where the famous Barton W. Stone held a great revival in 1803.

Mr. Skillman came from a long lived family and one which is scattered throughout the States. His father, Isaac Skillman, came to Bourbon in 1816, settling near North Middletown, and died at the advanced age of 97 years. Mr. Skillman was entirely blind but had full possession of his mental faculties and, as recently as Sunday, predicted that his death was but a few days off.

He was thrice married, his first wife being Adaline Henderson, who bore him seven children, four of whom are living: Mr. A. J. Skillman, Mr. John W. Skillman, Jr., Mr. Chas. Skillman, and Mrs. John T. McCauley, of Cynthiana. His second wife was Lydia Chambers, by whom he had three sons: Mr. Wm. G. Skillman, Mr. Richard Skillman and Benj. W. Skillman, all of Bourbon.

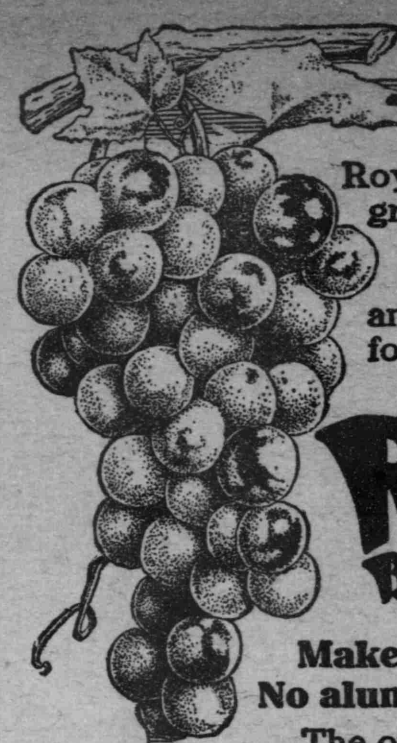

Mr. Skillman's last wife, formerly Miss Allie Horton, survives without issue.

Mr. Skillman had a large number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren, and six of the former officiated as pall-bearers at the funeral services which were held Wednesday from the residence at 1 o'clock p. m.

The services were conducted by his life long friend, Elder L. H. Reynolds, who has rounded out more than half a century as a minister of the gospel. The interment was in the cemetery in North Middletown, at 2:30 o'clock.

Mr. Skillman lived through the most eventful period of the Nation's history during one year old when the battle of Waterloo decided the fate of the great Napoleon; had married his first wife and had children ten years old when the Mexican war broke out; had married his second wife and was rearing his second set of children when the civil war was fought, and was living happily with his surviving wife when the Spanish-American war was being waged, she reading to him daily the events of that struggle.

Mr. Skillman never lost interest in public affairs and at the age of ninety-six still managed his farm of more than 200 acres of land.

MATRIMONIAL.

—The marriage of Miss Lorretta Burke, and Dr. Walter J. Dempsey was solemnized at 6:40 o'clock Tuesday morning at St. Stephen's church in Covington, Rev. Father Bocklage officiating. The wedding was a quiet affair, only the relatives and a few intimate friends being present.

Miss Burke is the lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Burke, of Covington, and a most estimable young woman. She has many friends in Paris where she was a frequent visitor at the home of her uncle, Rev. E. A. Burke, who for many years was pastor of the Church of the Annunciation.

Dr. Dempsey was a 1908 graduate from the Cincinnati College of Pharmacy, and is proprietor of Dempsey's Pharmacy at Corner of Sixth and York streets, Newport. He is a son of Councilman and Mrs. J. B. Dempsey, of Paris, and is popular with a large circle of friends.

The happy couple left Covington on the noon train for Pittsburg, Pa., and other Eastern cities for a bridal trip. The many friends of this popular young couple in this city wish them much happiness and success through life.

Airship Company Incorporated.

Capitalized at $100,000, the Wright company, of New York, has been incorporated "to manufacture, sell and operate airships." The directors are Wilbur Wright, Orville Wright, of Dayton, Ohio, George A. Stevens, Henry S. Hooker and Alphonse F. Barnes of New York.

In addition to the directors named, a number of well known capitalists are financially interested. They are Cornelius Vanderbilt, August Belmont, Howard Gould, Robert J. Collier, Andrew Freedman, Morton C. Plant, E. J. Berwind, Theodore P. Shonts, Allen A. Ryan and Russell A. Alger.

Dehancey Nicoll, counsel for the new company, said that one of the Wright brothers would be president and that the Executive Committee would include the Wrights, August Belmont, Andrew Freedman and Theodore P. Shonts.

The concern will manufacture and sell Wright aeroplanes and also will seek to protect the Wright patents and to give the two Dayton inventors time to develop their machines further. A factory will be situated at Dayton, according to Mr. Nicoll, while the general offices will be in New York.
